

ENEReady

Overview

ENEReady is an EV charging app based in Singapore. The objective of the project was an Integration with Multi Brands EV Chargers with Open Source Application for all EV Owners/Users. A Next Generation AI EV Charger and User Management System, With Smart Monitoring, Data analytics and Load Balancing application development, Summarized Billing, automated payments and consolidated report generation

Challenges

- Aggregation of multiple functionalities for user authentication
- Simplification of payment gateway integration for seamless use

Technologies Used

- Android & iOS
- Kotlin

Solutions

- User Authentication was done using AWS Amplify
- Payment Integration was done via Stripe to avoid the complexities

